YOU'LL ENJOY

vacationing at McGee Creek Resort . . . a favorite stopping place for the angler and hunter, located in one of the finest vacation areas in California. Here comfortable accommodations are available, home cooked meals satisfy eager appetites, and a well stocked store caters to the camper. Modern hotel rooms and cabins are available, as well as fountain service. Fishing is superb in the back country and deer hunting in season annually brings many nimrods to this district.

WINTER SPORTS

McGee Creek is the center of winter sports activities in Eastern California. Close to the resort is the McGee Creek Up-Ski, the highest ski lift in the United States. The slopes of McGee mountain will be the scene of the 1939 California Ski Championships. This area is favored by both amateur and professional winter sports' enthusiasts.
