

Camp High Sierra

The High Sierras—land of snowy peaks in an azure sky—sparkling lakes and foaming streams—giant evergreen forests—strange freaks of nature, the Devil's Post Pile, gigantic Earthquake Fault, valley of boiling springs and geysers—breathtaking scenic beauty, Rainbow Falls, the Minarets—truly America's most magnificent mountain playground—and in its very heart, Camp High Sierra!

Accommodations-Facilities

Rustic Cabins—cool and comfortable. (Note: Guests bring own towels and an extra blanket; all other bedding furnished.)

Dining Hall—serving appetizing food, simple but wholesome and delicious.

Recreation Lodge—center of camp social life, amateur dramatics, music, dancing, table games, entertainment, and story-swapping in front of the great fireplace.

Playgrounds—Equipment for camp games and sports—Library—Store.

• Rainbow Falls •

High Altitude But Low Cost

A non-profit municipal playground, operated for your enjoyment by the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department. That is why rates are surprisingly low.

	Day	Week
Adults and children, 15 years and over	$2.75	$17.50
Children, 6 to 14, inclusive	2.25	14.00
Children, 2 to 5, inclusive	1.50	8.75
Children under 2	.75	4.55

American plan outings include meals and lodging.

Individual Meals:

Breakfast or Lunch 50c, Dinner 75c

(Note: Rates are subject to change without notice.)

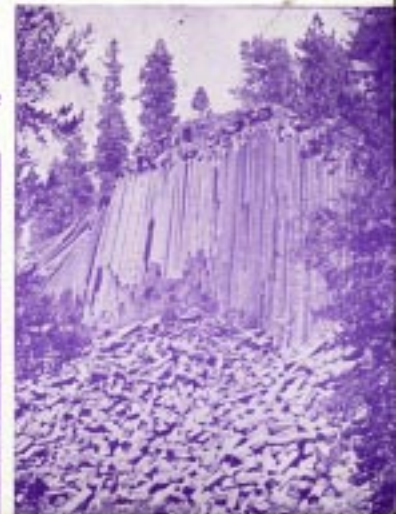

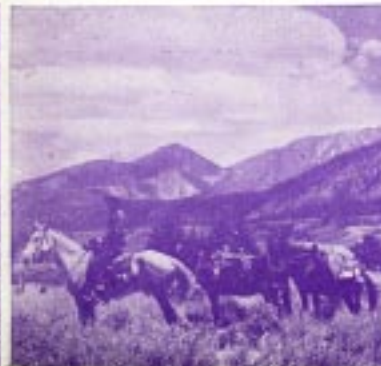

Camp High Sierra, Mammoth Lakes P.O., Calif.

Twin Lakes •

• Camp High Sierra Lodge

• Devil's Post Pile

• Pack Train Guide •

Vacation Center

"Rough it" to your heart's content—pack in to the back country wilderness by horseback and burro train—fish where the gamey trout teem in lake and stream—visit points of rare scenic beauty and interest by trail or auto road—ride, swim, hike—or join in the quieter activities in camp—rest and relax where cool breezes blow—enjoy the good fellowship and evenings of fun at the camp recreation lodge.

Camp Season Opens June 26 Registration Starts June 1

Accommodations are limited and early reservations are advisable. Registration should be made in advance at Municipal Camp Registration Office, Room 305 Los Angeles City Hall. For Information, Telephone Michigan 5211.