

DARWIN NOTES

By Mary Kuchs

Mrs. M. Trezona is home for the summer after teaching this past year in Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLanahan left for a two-week vacation in Montana last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fortney and family leave this week for Oklahoma to make their home.

Visitors at the Mack Tilley home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. George M. Tilley of Los Angeles, parents of Mr Mack and Jack Tilley.

Plans are being made for a playground at Darwin. Donations have already been received and the A.C.M. Co. have donated men and equipment for clearing and leveling the ground. A baseball diamond is now in the making.

Tuesday afternoon bridge club met at the home of Mrs. M. Trezona. Regular members were in attendance with guests being Mrs. George Collins and Mrs. Fred Tong.

Miss Janet Paetsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Paetsch, arrived home last week from Utah where she has been attending school for the past year. Miss Paetsch is a junior and is planning to attend Lone Pine high school next year.

Miss Carolyn Collins left Friday for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Severe of Oakley, Idaho. Miss Collins recently graduated from the 8th grade at Darwin Elementary school and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Collins.

Mr. John Hagerty was dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McLanahan prior to their leaving for vacation.

Mrs. Gene Berry and daughter, Cynthia, are house-guests of Mr and Mrs. Frank Helford. Mrs. Berry is the sister of Mrs. Helford and is from Hailey, Idaho.

Leaving last week on a motor trip to Idaho were Mr. and Mrs. Washburn. They will visit Mr Washburn's brother. Mrs. Washburn is the principal of the Darwin Elementary school.

Mrs. J. W. Kuchs and daughter, Arlene, left this week for a visit to Tooele, Utah. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kuchs of that city. She was accompanied by Mrs. Markus Whitman and her two children, Carolyn and George.
