

LONE PINE

By Margaret Sparrevohn

Joy Spainhower spent last Thursday and Friday in Death Valley visiting schools with school officials of Independence.

Mr and Mrs. Ed Hjeltness and sons expect to leave Saturday for a weekend in Los Angeles.

Mr and Mrs. John Morris were Los Angeles visitors several days last week.

Ben Baker and Skinny Gates drove to the southland last Thursday, returning Saturday

Bob Henderson, Lester Hewitt and Gene Skinner, were weekend visitors in Lone Pine from their schools in the southland.

Edna Stringer left Monday for a business trip to Los Angeles. She expects to be gone until Saturday

Mr and Mrs. Rupert Renfrow were called to Porterville on Monday due to the death of a cousin of Mrs. Renfrow's. They returned home Wednesday.

Members of the Missionary Society of the Church of the Nazarene in Lone Pine met at the home of Mrs. Hattie Skinner on Wednesday for a work meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Maddox will leave Sunday morning for Whittier where they will spend some time with her folks, Mr and Mrs. J W McKinney, until completion of the new home they have purchased in the North Hollywood area. Mr McKinney helped move their furnishings over the weekend.

Mrs. Pauline Kelley was called south over the weekend due to the death of her brother-in-law, in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gunnoe were called to Portland, Oregon last week after hearing of the serious illness of his father. Their baby, Sue, is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Lubken and girls while her parents are away

Mr and Mrs. Don Carpentier spent several days in Los Angeles early this week.

Mr and Mrs. Claud Maddox were dinner guests Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor

Mr and Mrs. Edward Hjeltness returned Sunday from Eugene, Oregon where they were called on Friday to attend the funeral services of Cris Hjeltness, Ed's oldest brother, who lived in Venita, Oregon.

Rudie Henderson, of Ontario, was a business visitor from Friday until Tuesday

Mrs. Carrie Wiltfang and Mrs. Ruby Skinner entertained the sewing club yesterday at the latter's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Stimpson were Lone Pine visitors at the Dow hotel this week. Mr. Stimpson lived here from 1909-1912. He attended Lone Pine high school and spent his vacation this week renewing acquaintances. The Stimpsons are now residents in Fresno.

Bruce Smith, of Fresno, representative of Aetna Insurance Co., was a business visitor of the Henderson Insurance Agency in Lone Pine Tuesday and Wednesday He was accompanied by his wife and during their stay, were guests of Mr and Mrs. Edward Hjeltness.

County equipment was engaged on Tuesday leveling and weeding two runways at the Lone Pine airport.