

* WESTERN DAY QUEEN—Judy Jones, queen of the Western Day celebration at Lone Pine high school last Friday, sits with one of her princesses Roberta Morgan, left, and General Chairman Lenis Brown, right, before the start of the parade. Roberta was winner of the girls events at the horsemanship events Friday afternoon. (Challiant Press Photo.)

Roberta Morgan, John Lacey Win On Western Day

Roberta Morgan and John Lacey won top honors in the Western Day horse events last Friday as the Lone Pine high school students participated in the annual celebration.

Miss Morgan was first for the girls with 28 points and Lacey was first for the boys with 36 points. Other point winners were Norman Starks, 20, Mike Baker and Fred Lowe, 13 each, Jim Lowe, 11, Judy Jones 7, Charlene Starks 5 and Pocky Kennedy, 1.

Winners of the various events Friday afternoon were Keyhole race: Roberta Morgan, first and Norman Starks, second. Tilting: Mike Baker, first; Judy Jones, second; and Rocky Kennedy, third. Saddle race: Mike Baker, first; Norman Starks, second, and Roberta Morgan, third. Stock horse: John Lacey, first; Mike Baker, second, and Charlene Starks, third. Trail horse: Roberta Morgan, first; Norman Starks, second, and Charlene Starks, third. Relay race: John Lacey, first, and Roberta Morgan, second. Musical chairs: Jim Lowe, first, and Norman Starks, second. Stake race: Roberta Morgan, first; John Lacey, second, and Judy Jones, third. Roping: Fred Lowe, first; John Lacey, second, and Jim Lowe, third. Ribbon race: Roberta Morgan and John Lacey, first, and Judy Jones and Norman Starks, second. Barrel race: John Lacey, first, and Fred Lowe, second.

Dave Mojarro climbed the greased pole to win for his team of Danny Lowe, Dave Mojarro, Billy Brainerd, David Stark, Leonard Gonzales, Paul Jobin, Richard Berry and Albert Hernandez.

Winners in the parade Friday morning were Freshman float; Fred Lowe and Charlene Starks, best couple; John Lacey best cowboy; Marguerite Miller and Sandy Bostrom, best majorettes; Roberta Morgan best cowgirl; Alberta Bonham, best band girl and Mike Bauer, best band boy.

Judy Jones were crowned queen of Western Day at the dance held in the gym Thursday night following a barbecue dinner. She won over Pat Lorenz, Marguerite Miller and Roberta Morgan. Flag bearers in the parade were Mosey Gamboa and Mike Baker.

General chairman of the affair was Lenis Brown.

Judges for the horse events were Russell Spainhower, Pete Olivas, John Pierce and Foster Smith.