

SHOSHONE

By Celestia Gilliam

Dr Gordon Hellesly, resident doctor at Death Valley Jct. for the past two years, has given notice of his resignation. He plans to practice at Darwin indefinitely.

While making a trip to San Francisco in order to attend a Postmasters' Convention, Dexter Wilson suffered injuries in an automobile accident near Bakersfield. He has been postmaster at Death Valley Jct. for the past two years.

Mrs. George Sawyer, wife of the superintendent of Western Talc Mine, enjoyed a Memorial Day visit with her mother and stepfather, Mr and Mrs. Jim Hardy of Las Vegas.

Returning to the desert to enjoy the hot baths at Tecopa Hot Springs, Mrs. Jack Kenny spent the week following Memorial Day in this vicinity.

Senator Charles Brown drove to Sacramento Thursday, June 3, to attend a committee meeting there. Mrs. Brown rode with him to Baker where she plans to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Betty Lisle.

Mr. Lovett, teacher at the Death Valley Jct. high school for the past two years, visited San Francisco to receive medical care.

Shoshone Sunday school enjoyed a wienie roast at the pool Friday, June 4. Swimming events were the main events and everyone enjoyed themselves tremendously.