

The Oglala Light

Eighteenth Year Number Two

Published by U. S. Indian School, Pine Ridge, So. Dak.

ROSS L. SPALSBURY, EDITOR

J. W. MUMBLEHEAD, MANAGER & INSTRUCTOR

Contents for October 1916.

Short Review of Educational Work Among the Oglala Sioux of the Pine Rtdge Reservation, Pine Ridge, So. Dakota, from 1878 to 1916.— John R. Brennan, Supt.	3
The Rapid City Institute - - - - -	9
General School Items - - - - -	12
Editor's Comment - - - - -	16
Agency Items - - - - -	14
News Items of General Interest - - - - -	18
Advertisements - - - - -	27

Entered in the Post Office at Pine Ridge, S. D. and registered as second-class mail matter

THE OGLALA LIGHT is issued from the Printing Department of the Oglala Indian Training School, located at Pine Ridge, South Dakota. The mechanical work is executed by apprentice-students under the direction of the Instructor in Printing.

THE LIGHT has a wide circulation both in and out of the Government Service. It is an excellent advertising medium and the quickest way of reaching employees of the U. S. Government.

SUBSCRIPTION Fifty Cents per Volume. Ten numbers will probably constitute a volume. BACK NUMBERS, Ten Cents each.

ADDRESS all communications regarding subscriptions and other subjects relating to magazine direct to THE OGLALA LIGHT, United States Indian Training School, Pine Ridge, So. Dak.